

Michael Waskey BIO

Michael Waskey is a first-rate performing songwriter and storyteller who delivers familiar yet never derivative music filled with vivid colors, broad textures and purposeful imagery. Michael's blatant honesty, addictive melodies, smartly crafted chord progressions and well thought out instrumentation continually captivates audiences and turns casual listeners into devoted fans every day.

Michael has worn many hats since his music career began at age 15, from lead guitarist to producer to band leader, Michael tackles any role he takes on with a Jocund Intensity. He even went ahead and got a degree in professional music from the prestigious "BERKLEE COLLEGE OF MUSIC"!

In addition to being a much sought after performing singer-songwriter, Michael is available as a freelance guitarist, vocalist, and Film/Television/Radio composer. He also runs a successful studio where he teaches guitar and general music to students of all ages and skill levels.